19. 20. Jurisdiction of village courts in criminal cases.—Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (5 of 1898) the village court shall have jurisdiction concurrent with that of the criminal court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the village is situated for the trial of all offences specified in the Schedule.

21. How cases may be instituted.—(1) A case before a village court may be instituted by a complaint, made orally or in writing, to a member of the village court.

(2) If the complaint is made orally, the member shall record the name of the complainant, the name of the person against whom the complaint is made, the nature of the offence and such other particulars, if any, as may be prescribed, and shall direct the complainant to appear before the village court.

22. Power of village courts to dismiss or refuse to entertain complaint.—(1) If upon the face of the complaint, or on examining the complaint, the village court is of opinion that the complaint is frivolous, vexatious or untrue, it shall dismiss the case by order in writing.

(2) If at any time it appears to the village court—

- (a) that it has no jurisdiction to try the case, or
- (b) that the offence is one for which the sentence which the court is competent to pass would be inadequate, or
- (c) that the case is one which should not be tried by the court, it shall direct the complainant to the proper court.

23. Dismissal of case for default.—If in any case before a village court the complainant fails to appear on the day fixed, or if in the opinion of the court he shows negligence in prosecuting his case, the court may dismiss the case for default, and such order of dismissal shall operate as an acquittal.

24. Proceedings preliminary to trial.—(1) If the complaint is not dismissed, the village court shall, subject to the provisions of section 53, by summons or otherwise require the accused to appear and answer the complaint.

(2) If the accused fails to appear or cannot be found, the court shall report the fact to the nearest magistrate, who may issue a warrant for the arrest of the accused and when arrested may forward him for trial to the village court or release him on bail to appear before it.

(3) The village court shall, if possible, try the case on the day on which the accused appears or is brought before it; but if that is not possible, the village court shall release him on his executing a bond for a sum not exceeding two hundred rupees to appear before the court on any subsequent day to which the trial may be adjourned.

25. Bar to appeal from the order of village courts, but power to order retrial.—Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (5 of 1898), there shall be no appeal by a convicted person in any case tried by a village court:

26. Power of village courts to impose fine or to award compensation.—(1) A village court shall record its decision in writing and may sentence an offender convicted by it to pay a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees or in default to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month.

- (a) that the offender should be released after due admonition, the village court may instead of sentencing him to any punishment, release him after due admonition; or
- (b) that the offender should be released on probation of good conduct, the village court may, notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, (5 of 1898) instead of sentencing him at once to any punishment, direct that he be released on his executing a bond for a sum not exceeding two hundred rupees to appear and receive sentence when called upon during such period not exceeding one year as the village court may direct, and in the meantime to keep the peace and be of good behaviour.

37. Ex parte decision.—If the defendant fails to appear and the village court is satisfied that he has received notice of the date fixed for hearing, the court may decide the suit ex parte:

Provided that any defendant against whom a suit has been decided ex parte may, within thirty days from the date of executing any processes for enforcement of the decision, apply orally or in writing, to the village court to set aside the order; and the court, if satisfied, that the defendant did not receive due notice of the date of hearing or was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing on the date fixed, shall set aside the decision and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the suit.
